MEET THE NEW STUDENT INTERNS

JORDAN AMMERMAN

Hi, my name is Jordan Ammerman and I am one of the new interns at WTC. I got into theater through going to shows with my parents and falling in love with the acting singing, dancing, and everything else. I decided to apply for the internship, because I wanted to further my understanding of how theater is run and how to participate with theater in the future. My favorite show of all time is a three-way tie between Shrek the musical, Les Miserables, and Fiddler on the Roof, because they all are amazingly written, and very good shows.

JACEY BRUGNONE

Hello! My name is Jacey Brugnone and I'm a senior at CWU. I have loved singing and performing ever since I was three years old, and I really appreciate the amazing friendships and opportunities I've gained through WTC. I have had such incredible experiences being in shows here and I've made a lot of amazing memories. Most of my current theatre knowledge has been on stage, so I really hope to learn more about the behind-the-scenes and hopefully prepare to stage manage or produce one day. It isn't easy to pick a favorite musical, but a few of mine are Newsies, Little Shop, Six, and Hairspray!

RILEY DURHAM

I was exposed to theater and life on stage at a very young age, so to me theater has been a second home. Seeing that my whole life has centered around the stage, I am sure that I want to spend my life in theater, but not necessarily in the spotlight. My goal is to one day open my own theater company, to bring theater to kids who are just like me, and in hopes they will find home on my stage, just like I found home on the WTC stage. I love any kind of musical, but my favorite is a tie between "Hairspray" and "Sweeney Todd", which are basically the same...right?

KINDLE JOHNSON

Hello, I'm Kindle Johnson. Theater has always been such a big part of my life, my family has always surrounded me with music and the arts so naturally I always wanted to be a part of the theater community here in Yakima. I've mostly helped with on-stage aspects of theater like choreography and acting, so I'm excited to see the backstage side of things through this internship. I think this will be a great opportunity to learn how to manage all aspects of putting on amazing productions. My favorite musical would have to be Waitress, the music is just so beautiful, but Newsies is a very close second.

SAGE MARQUIS

My name is Sage Marquis, I'm almost 20 and I am a new intern here at the Warehouse theater! I knew I wanted to do theater ever since I saw Anne of the Green Gables at the Warehouse when I was a little kid, and I was "stage manager" for the Junior High production of Alice in Wonderland when I was in 7th grade and fell in love with all aspects of it, specifically the community. Since this is the first internship here at the Warehouse, I'm not 100% sure what to expect, but I am simply excited to be involved in theater in any way I can, since I work evenings as a server and I'm not able to perform in plays. My two favorite plays I have seen would probably have to be Hadestown or Les Miserables, but I could go on and on about any number of musicals. I'm excited to be here!

OLIVIA OLSEN

Hello! I'm a new student intern. I have always loved watching any type of theater I can get my hands on, and finally began acting and singing in Zillah's productions my freshman year. I hope to have a better understanding of the behind the scenes and business sides of theater. I've experienced what it's like to be both on stage and in the audience, but am looking forward to forming a deeper understanding of the ins-and-outs of a show. My favorite musical/play is Little Women! I also love Clue.

ELISE KLEPACH

Ever since I've been able to walk, I've always loved performing and being in charge. Everything related to theatre piques my interest: acting, set design, writing scripts --I love it all! I feel myself when I'm onstage; acting is one of my favorite hobbies. I am thrilled and want to thank the WTC for giving me this opportunity! I hope to gain more experience in the theatre; I'm interested in it all! I would say either The Sound of Music or La La Land is my favorite. The first, a classic I grew up watching that I adore. The second, newer but still an amazing film with great choreography, music, and camerawork to top it off.
